

CLICK THE AGE CLOSEST TO YOURS

TO SEE HOW MUCH YOU SHOULD SAVE FOR A COMFORTABLE RETIREMENT INCOME

ENJOY A COMFORTABLE RETIREMENT BY CONTRIBUTING:

17%

of your salary

Or more

Saving for retirement gets easier once you are in the habit. And you won't regret it: you have the opportunity today to make the decisions that will have the greatest impact on the quality of your future lifestyle.

Read an article about saving for a comfortable retirement

Allan Gray Proprietary Limited is an authorised financial services provider.

FIND YOUR PLACE ON THE SPECTRUM

You should save between

If you have been contributing 15% since you were 25 years old

If you are starting to save for the first time

While you may feel you don't have room in your current budget, even small financial sacrifices can help. You may find that it's actually easier to make space than you anticipated.

Read an article about saving for a comfortable retirement

FIND YOUR PLACE ON THE SPECTRUM

You should save between

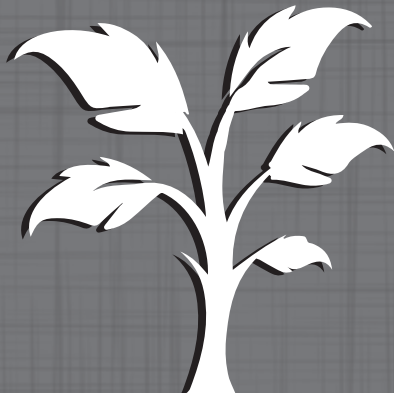

If you
have been contributing 15% since you were 25 years old

If you are starting to save for the first time

Consider setting up a debit order with an automatic annual escalation. Committing to allocating a portion of your future salary increases towards your retirement savings makes reaching your goals easier.

Read an article about saving for a comfortable retirement

FIND YOUR PLACE ON THE SPECTRUM

It's up to you to place retirement savings near the top of your spending priorities. Each month that you spend rather than save increases the amount that you'll have to save, or pushes out the date at which you can comfortably retire.

You should save between

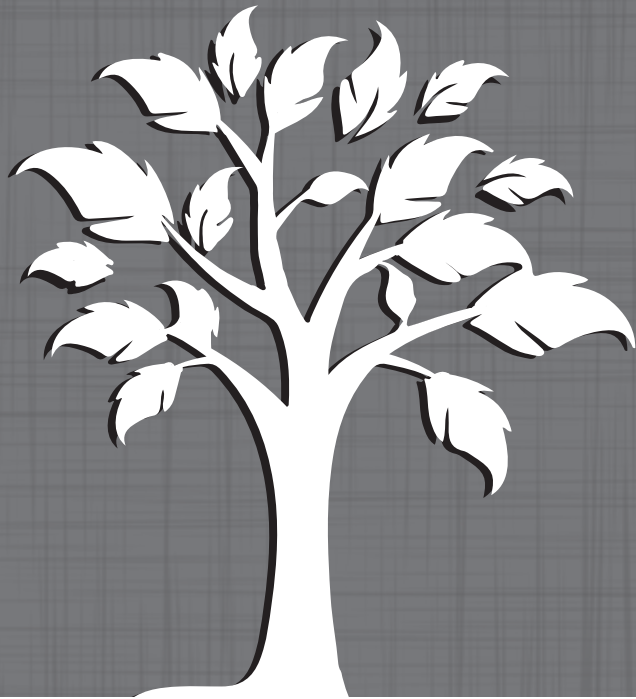

If you
have been contributing 15% since
you were 25 years old

If you are starting to save for the first time

Read an article about saving for a comfortable retirement

FIND YOUR PLACE ON THE SPECTRUM

Be mindful of the financial lifestyle you are getting used to as your retirement income will need to pay for it when you stop working, and if your money can't stretch, you may need to make lifestyle changes at a time when you really don't want to.

You should save between

↓ 22% — 59% ↓
of your salary of your salary

If you have been contributing 15% since
you were 25 years old

If you are starting to save for the first time

Read an article about saving for a comfortable retirement